FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Long Distance Practice March.

The Sixth Field Battery of the United States artillery, commanded by Capt. G. W. Gatchell, entered Fort Sam Houston, Texas, yesterday amid the cheers of the local garrison.

The battery broke the world's record for long-distance practice march of artillery, having covered the estimated 1,100 miles from Fort Riley, Kansas, to Fort Sam Houston in fifty-five days.

The battery was compelled to make several detours in order to evade bad roads and an unusually rough country. This made the distance which it actually covered considerably longer than by rail.

It is asserted by army men at Fort Sam Houston that it is by far the longest practice march ever made by artillery in time of peace, and that no forced march in time of war, with the exception of Napoleon's retreat from Moscow, compares with it in distance.

The artillerymen of the Sixth Battery were a sorry appearing set of men. There clothing was in tatters and so covered with mud and dirt that the color of the clothing could not be distinguished. The men are haggard and lean. Many of them were scarcely able to travel. The horses resembled moving skeletons.

A blizzard swept down upon the battery last Monday morning just after it left Austin. It continued during nearly all of the remainder of the march to San Antonio, about ninety miles. The men walked nearly the whole distance in order to keep warm.

The battery lost one man, Private Arthur Hall, during the march. He died in the hospital at Austin from malaria, caused, according to the statement of physicians who attended him, by exposure and hardship encountered on the march.

A Dramatic Climax.

An appeal to ancient law came as a dramatic climax Thursday in the case of William W. Patterson, on trial in Henrico county, charged with attempted assault four years ago upon Miss Cora Crittendon. The defense had introduced witnesses who testified that the defendant and the prosecuting witness long had been sweethearts and that he often had slept at her house. An attempt also was made to show that the moral character of the girl was not above suspicion. When she took the stand the attorney for the defense, after subjecting her to a rigid cross-examination in which he endeavored to bring out the relations alleged to have been sustained between Patterson and the girl, declared that his client was willing to accept a sentence of eighteen years provided that the prosecuting witness prove by competent professional testimony that her life had been blameless.

Louis O. Wendenburg, counsel for the prosecution, sprang to his feet in protest. "Under no conditions will I submit my witness to this indignity," he cried. "Such a proposition is unheard of, even in criminal law. I appeal to the court to sustain me."

Judge Scott ruled the question out, and the case went to the jury, who found the prisoner guilty and, as heretofore stated, sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary.

Patterson refused to testify relative to his relations with the girl, although he said that he had bought wearing apparel for her, and that on one occasion she had bidden him in a closet while other people were in the house.

The Algeciras Conference.

The published interviews with German diplomats, in which they say that Germany is going to the conference at Algeciras with peaceful intentions, have greatly relieved the anxiety of the business and other sections of London They have, however, made no impression on the diplomats and other officials of Great Britain, who, while they still believe that in the end the majority of the powers will uphold the French contentions, expect some stormy sessions of the conference, and anticipate the possibility of the withdrawal of Germany.

In official circles it is considered that the views of France and Germany with regard to the policing of Morocco cannot be reconciled. Germany, they believe, will certainly hold to her agreement to give France control of the frontier police but will insist on international control of the interior gendarmerie, which France maintains should be left to her. France will contend for this point almost as strongly as she will her claim to control the frontier guards.

Great Britain will support the contention of France for the control of the interior gendarmerie, as well as all other French contentions. It is believed in London that Spain and Italy will take the same stand, as it is not thought that any of the powers except Germany will desire to send troops to Morocco. The powers are prepared, it is understood, to depend on France for the protection of the interests of foreigners in Morocco.

No great difficulties are anticipated with regard to financial and other reforms as the views of Germany and France on these points are not widely divergent.

Bold Robbery.

A daring robbery took place yesterday in the National Banking Company's offices in Newark, N. J., when a satchel containing several thousands of dollars disappeared from the counter, while the man who had just drawn the money turned for a minute to speak with a friend. Both he and his friend say they saw no one approach the spot where the satchel had been placed. The police have no clew.

Leban Dennis, secretary of the George Brown & Co. stone works, went into the bank about noon to draw $3,150, the weekly pay roll. He deposited the money in a satchel, but as he started to leave he met a friend and placed the satchel on the check shelf, and then turned to his acquaintance. When he looked for the satchel a few moments later it was gone.

The bank is less than 100 yards from police headquarters. The police were promptly notified and a general alarm was sent out.

The empty bag was found yesterday afternoon by a boy in the hallway of the building at 204 Market street.

Carries Bullet in His Heart.

John L. Pruden, of Richmond, carrying a .32-caliber bullet within the pericardium of his heart, has recovered from the wound. Pruden, who is 18 years old, and George Williams were out shooting a cat. They had with them a revolver, which was thought to be empty, and Williams carelessly pointed it at Pruden while reloading. The weapon was discharged. When probing for the ball the throbbing of the heart is said to have almost knocked the instruments from the surgeon's hands. The physicians were afraid to probe further and decided to let nature take its course. Many of the physicians attending were under the impression at the time that the bullet rested within the pericardium, and several of them are positive that the wall of the heart was penetrated. Pruden suffers no inconvenience from the shot. He was in bed just one month from the effects of it.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 13, 1906.

VENEZUELA is again causing anxiety in diplomatic circles. The breaking off of diplomatic relations between France and the South American country has created a serious situation. Relations between the United States and Venezuela are also strained. It is admitted at Washington that President Castro's relations with United States Minister Russell are not all that could be desired. A French hint of adopting punitive measures increases the unpleasantness of the situation. French warships are in nearby waters prepared to make a demonstration of Venezuelan ports. Castro is apparently determined to force an issue, and, if possible, involve the United States. Cable communication has been cut, it is supposed, by order of Castro. A dispatch from Paris says that though M. Maubourguet, the Venezuelan charge d'affaires, has not yet received his passports, diplomatic relations between France and Venezuela are considered to have been broken off. There is no question for the present of a naval demonstration, but there is no doubt that the French government intends to have the fullest recognition of and respect for its rights. An official note issued last night says that, although an ultimatum has not yet been sent to Venezuela, France cannot tolerate much longer President Castro's refusal to accede to the French demands without considering the advisability of taking stronger means to enforce them. The trouble between France and Venezuela is chronic, and despite all endeavors of the United States to restore cordial relations between the two countries they seem to be as far apart as ever.

A BOOK entitled the "American Peril," by an anonymous author, which made its appearance in Berlin yesterday, describes this American "peril," not as a commercial menace, but an intellectual and moral danger. The author says:

European industry has nothing to fear [illegible] competition, but points [illegible]peans are manifesting a [illegible]ency to adopt American [illegible] American conception of [illegible]gotistical, immoral and [illegible]uropeans, by accepting [illegible]ories of life, become soul[illegible]eans must exclude the pernicious American 'hustle' from the realms of mental and moral thought and must pin their faith to the grand classic ideals of ancient heathen Greece whose lofty morality was vastly superior to that of nominally Christian America.

This is the most groundless fear that has been voiced in regard to American aggression. There are, no doubt, cases where certain people in the United States make the Count of Monte Christo their ideal, but this is due in a large measure to European examples, where dum vivimus vivamus seems to be the motto of many who can afford to carry out such a principle. As to the hustle complained of, Europeans have every opportunity to contest for places in the vanguard of the march of life.

AT THE meeting of the Cabinet yesterday the President asked Secretary Shaw to remain at the head of the Treasury Department until March, 1907, and Mr. Shaw agreed to do so. More than a year ago Mr. Shaw let it be known that he expected to retire from the Cabinet in February of this year. This is but another instance of where few resign.

BENDING over the washtub in the penitentiary at Columbus, Ohio, and shamming an illness in which nobody believes, Mrs. Cassie L. RUSSIAN official figures show that 282 persons were killed during the recent uprising in Moscow. During the disorders dispatches sent from Russia stated that several thousand were killed each day!

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Jan. 11.

The President has decided to appoint as Register of the Treasury to succeed Judson W. Lyons, Prof W. T. Vernon, at present president of the Quindara, (Kas.,) Institute, and one of the most prominent colored men of the country. The position is the highest one in the government that by precedent is always given to a representative of the negro race.

Crazy Snake, the stalwarth old war chief of the Creeks, was told by President Roosevelt this morning that he and his tribesmen must obey the laws of the white men. In vain the old man pleaded that his people preferred the treaty of 1861 to that of 1902, that the Red Man was happier when the land was held in common, and that if his tribesmen could only continue under the old conditions they would be more prosperous, and would love their white neighbors more than if compelled to take up the new and strange system providing for individual allotment. The President told Crazy Snake that the treaty of 1861 is not now the law.

Talking tariff to keep the republican insurgents from defeating the statehood bill occupied the members of the House all this week. Something else will be furnished them by the makers of their programme next week, to give the leaders one more opportunity to save the lives of their pet. It was an interesting debate, serving as he did to bring out the differences of opinion in the democratic as well as in the republican ranks on the subject of the Philippine tariff. It has made it quite clear that the bill will receive negative votes on the republican side, affirmative votes from the minority; more of the latter perhaps than of the former, and sufficient, it seems, to assure the passage of the bill when it shall be brought to a vote some time next Tuesday. In the meantime, the Statehood champions continue to fight for delay. As the champions among the champions are the Speaker and the members of the rules committee, it will not be difficult to secure the delay that is absolutely needed to save the Statehood bill from defeat. If the rule prohibiting a division of the question and permitting no amendment to the Hamilton measure, giving Statehood to Oklahoma and Indian Territory as Oklahoma, and Arizona and New Mexico as Arizona, should be brought in now, it would be defeated, there being not less than 53 or 54 republicans to join with the united democracy in voting it down. The curious spectacle is presented therefor of the leaders fearing to present their bill to the House, and the opponents of that measure clamoring for its presentation. "When we do bring in the Statehood bill and rule, finally, said a member of the rules committee today, "it will be when we are assured that both will be adopted."

The urgent deficiency bill will soon be given the right of way. Possibly the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill may be brought in when that one is out of the way. The committee work in the Senate next week will find its chief feature in the sittings of the committee on interoceanic canals. Beginning Monday morning Senator Millard and his colleagues will delve into the broad subject of canal management and construction. Chief Engineer Stevens will be the first witness. Senator Bacon and his democratic friends who are anxious to know the instructions of our delegates to the Algeciras conference on Moroccan affairs may make another attempt to have the Senate call upon the State Department for information in this regard. The shipping bill and pure food bill will probably come up in the Senate for discussion this week.

Advices received by the War and State Departments indicate that former President Morales's resignation as chief executive of the Domican Republic was accepted yesterday and that Morales has sailed from San Domingo city for San Juan, Porto Rico, on board the United States gunboat Dubuque.

Representative Littlefield of Maine, by direction of the House committee on the judiciary today favorably reported to the House, his "publicity bill," which requires all corporations engaged in interstate commerce to make annual report to the Commissioner of Corporations and the Department of Commerce and Labor. The bill is in identical with the one laid before the House in the last session by the judiciary committee.

HOUSE.

The House met at 11 a. m. today, an hour earlier than usual, to continue the debate on the Philippine tariff bill. Less than fifty members were in attendance when Mr. Gaines began a forty minute speech in opposition to the bill, his contention being that there should be absolute free trade between this country and the Philippines.

Annapolis Court Martial.

Annapolis, Md., Jan 13.—The most important trial that has yet come before the hazing court martial at the Naval Academy, and one that contains more extensive charges, began this morning when Midshipman J. Paul Miller, of Lancaster, Ky., a star member of the class that would graduate on February 12, was arraigned on the charge of hazing and also countenancing the hazing of four midshipmen of the fourth class. The importance of the case is shown by the fact that the accused has additional counsel in the person of Hon. Charles A. Lauchheimer, U. S. Marine Corps, who is a recognized authority on naval courts martial. E. S. Theall, of Washington, D. C., is also counsel.

Much work has devolved upon Lieutenant Commander Wm. K. Harrison, judge advocate in the previous trials before the court and, the superintendent of the academy has therefore designated Lieutenant Commander G. R. Marvell to assist Mr. Harrison in the prosecution of the case.

Miller is alleged to have hazed Fourth Classmen Henry G. Cooper, jr., of Oxford, N. C.; Max B. Dimott, of Niles, Mich.; Stanley R. Canon, of Llano, Texas, and John F. Donaldson, of Pawnee, Oklahoma, by compelling them to do the "sixteenth." He is charged with having permitted to do the same act while in his presence, when it was his duty to suppress it as one of the senior midshipmen.

It is in this connection that the "countenancing" charge comes in. It will be noted that the academy authorities have framed the charges that if guilt is not proved of hazing a conviction will follow for encouraging or countenancing hazing. Miller's trial marks the fifth of a series since the courtmartial was convened here on December 12.

The trial was opened with the reading of the charges of the accused. Miller, when asked the usual question of "guilty or not guilty?" announced that he would plead through his counsel

Thereupon Col. Lauchheimer entered a demurrer to the charges and specifications against Miller in that the facts alleged did not constitute hazing, etc., under the act of 1874, and the amendment of 1903, and he argued before the court on the motion for demurrer on this ground.

Judge Advocate Harrison, in arguing to the negative spoke of the authority defining "hazing," in that it is stated any upper classman assuming unauthorized authority against a new midshipman. The court overruled the demurrer.

A dispatch from Helsingors says that the reform committee has decided to propose to parliament that changes be made is the ballott law, making every one above the age of 24 eligible to franchise.

Information has just been received at Luray of the murder of Issac Nichols, by his brother, Elsey Nichols, in Madison county. The tragedy occurred near the Pinnacle, on the line between Page and Madison. The crime was committed with a pocketknife, Issac being stabbed through the heart, causing instant death. The trouble arose from a trifling matter, though the men are said to have quarreled several weeks before. After the stabbing Elsey Nichols made no effort to escape, and sent word to the Madison officials to come after him. He now is in jail at Madison Court House. The scene of the murder is about eight miles east of Luray, and is one of the wildest portions of the Blue Ridge in Virginia. Many moonshine distilleries have flourished in that section for years.

The testatrix was of a noted Spanish family and owned considerable property in Texas and this State.

The case against Thomas Johnson, for unlawful fishing in the Potomac river, was dismissed in the Circuit Court of King George county this week. The case of Henry C. Michie, the young traveling man, charged with extorting money from the late Robert D. THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

President pro tem. Wickham called the Senate to order at noon yesterday. A message from the Governor was received notifying the Senate of the appointment of Judge Moomaw to the vacancy in the Twentieth judical circuit. The appointment of Davis Bottom to be State printer was also read. The call for bills brought half a hundred to the desk. At 12:45 o'clock the Senate adjourned to the House to consider the appointment of Colonel Willard which was confirmed.

Many bill were offered. Senator Thomas introduced his bill to create a tax commission and one to legalize primaries.

Senator Thomas, of Lynchburg, offered his primary bill, allowing parties to provide all regulations and requiring the State to pay for holding said elections.

HOUSE.

Clerk J. W. Williams, of the House, announced his staff at the opening of the session, as follows: Thomas H. Bigger, assistant clerk, Richmond; George Lindsay, journal clerk, Norfolk; H. B. Owen, reading clerk, Manchester; W. S. Gooch, enrolling clerk, Louisa; John T. Loving Pulaski; Landon Lowry, Bedford; W. Samuel Burnley, Albemarle; John W. Burger, Rockbridge; J. Mr. Glenn introduced a bill creating tho office of special accountant, at a salary of $2,000 and expenses, whose duties would practically be those of the traveling auditor in the examination of the accounts of State officials.

More good roads bills were introduced and in most of them there was a provision for the use of convict labor on the highways.

At the request of Judge Williams the House adopted a resolution requesting the committee on courts of justice to report as to the most expeditious and economical way of compiling the statute laws of the State in the form of a code. Judge Williams explained that the code of 1887 is now practically obsolete, so greatly has it been amended by recent acts.

The road bill introduced by Mr. Read provides for an appointment of a road inspector, who shall be a practical engineer and who shall serve a four-year term, beginning January 1, 1907. It sets apart the sum of $500,000 to aid counties in constructing roads. The working of convict gangs is also provided for in the proposed measure.

The legislature is now simply clearing decks for the real work of the session. It today took up the self-imposed task of counting the vote that elected Swanson to the governorship. This will leave only the more pleasant duty of electing Thomas Staples Martin to succeed himself in the United State Senate before getting down to committee and routine work.

There are no desks in either House as yet, and members use books on their knees for writing, but business proceeds without confusion.

The Senate and House will take a recess from today until Tuesday, by which time it is hoped the desks will have arrived.

A caucus of the democrats of the two branches of the legislature was held last night for the purpose of nominating a Public Printer, the five judges of the Court of Appeals and the circuit judges.

For the position of Public Printer Davis Bottom defeated Horace A. Hawkins by a vote of 60 to 44. Bottom is the present incumbent and an appointee of the governor.

The only contests for the circuit judgeships was in the Thirteenth and Twentieth districts. In the former Claggett B. Jones won over Judge Garnett, with a vote of 74 to 37. In the latter district Judge W. W. Moffett defeated Judge C. B. Moomaw, an appointee of the governor and the incumbent, filling an unexpired term, by a vote of 95 to 16.

All of the Court of Appeals judges were re-elected—Judge R. W. Cardwell for the four-year term, Judge Stafford G. Whittle for six years, Judge John A. Buchanan for eight years, Judge James Keith for ten years, and Judge George W. Harrison for the long term of twelve years. There were no contests for these judgeships.

The caucus was in continuous session until nearly 1 o'clock this morning.

A copper wire used for telephones encircled Mrs. Hollister's neck. She had been strangled to death by this method, or the body had been dragged to the place where it was found. Mrs. Hollister was 30 years old. She had been missing from her home twelve hours after breaking an engagement to sing at the funeral of a friend. She was the wife of Franklin C. Hollister, of the printing house of Hollister Brothers.

Her outcries became so loud, he said, that he strangled the woman.

"I have my boy," said the first Mrs. James. "The man who was once my husband is nothing to me now. I bear him no ill will, and certainly wish only for the happiness of the dear little woman he married. When Mrs. James obtained her divorce, the McComb woman was mentioned, and afterward sued James for $25,000, alleging that he had promised to marry her if his wife were divorced. Accordingto the Temps, the reported rupture with Venezuela is announced prematurely. Mrs. Gould possesses some riches and is said to be of more than ordinary beauty.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammed portion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Smoot Will Case.

When the Gazette's report of the Smoot will case closed yesterday Miss Ella Rose Smoot, the contestant of the will, was on the stand. She stated that the relations between her mother and herself had been of a most affectionate character until Rev. Mr. Jones had married into the family subsequent to the death of her father. Documents were introduced to show that Mrs. Smoot had made several agreements with the contestant as to her annual allowance, but had violated each one, and on one occasion had given her written notice that she would be unable to make any cash allowance after a certain date. At this juncture Mr. Brent offered in evideuce the bill filed by Miss Smoot some time before her mother's death asking for a construction of her father's will. At that time Judge Nicol, of the Circuit Court, directed that Miss Smoot be given a monthly allowance of $75.

The answer to this document was read, as were also the report of Judge Barley, who had been appointed commissioner in the case, and the decree of the court. Court adjourned until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

In his testimony yesterday Rev. W. Strother Jones said that Mrs. Smoot had been invited to his house in Trenton, N. J., at the suggestion of Henry K. Field, of Alexandria, who was about to purchase the lumber yard and planing mill of J. H. D. Smoot, the deceased husband of the testatrix, Field's idea having been to relieve Mrs. Smoot of the annoyances due to the taking of inventory and other details of the transfer. He said nothing had been said to Mrs. Smoot about making her will, but she broached the subject and said she was determined to do so while in Trenton and proposed to make the witness executor. He stated that he advised her not to carry out that intention, and urged her to wait until she returned to Alexandria before making her will, but she was determined, and he then recommended Judge Vroom, a prominent attorney of Trenton, who framed the document. He claimed he had no knowledge of the contents of the will until it was read after Mrs. Smoot's funeral.

Rev. Mr. Jones stated that he thought the lease of the lumber yard in Alexandria to Field at $2,000 per year was to the advantage of the estate, as it had paid only an average of that amount for the five years previous. When court reconvened at 2 o'clock Rev. Mr. Jones took the stand to correct some of the statements made in the forenoon. He said that he had been mistaken about the amount of revenue received from the lumber yard during the five years proceeding the sale. It was considerably more than $2,000 per annum, he stated, but that it was diminishing each year. Mr. Brent, counsel for Miss Smoot, asked if any one had called his attention to the inaccuracy, and he admitted that Mr. Field had done so.

Complimentary Dance.

Miss Meryl Goldsmith gave a complimentary dance, at Odd Fellows' Hall last night to the Phoenix and Octagon Clubs, of Washington. The hall was tastefully decorated in blue and gray and brown and white, the colors of the two clubs. It was a pleasant affair throughout and was much enjoyed. Professor Padgett's orchestra furnished the music and Rammel Brothers and L. Shuman & Son were the caterers. Many persons from Washington were present. The latter came to this city on a special car and returned to their homes on the same. Among those present were Messrs. D., of Richmond, general superintendent of the Sunday schools of the Presbyterian Church, who occupied the pulpit of the Second Church in this city last Sunday, will preach again at both services tomorrow. At 4 p. m., Dr. Phillips will address a meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sunday schools on the subject of the work. Dr. Phillips' discourses last Sunday were able, interesting and instructive and he was listened to with close attention.

Revival services beginning at 7:50 o'clock on Monday night and continuing throughout the week, will be held at the M. E. Church South.

D. A. R. Entertainment.

Among those who will take part in the tableaux to be presented at the Opera House next Wednesday night under the auspices of Mt. Vernon Chapter D. A. R., will be a number of the Minute Men of Washington, who will appear in their continental uniform. The Osceola Tribe of Red Men of this city have also kindly consented to appear in these tableaux, and, in their picturesque costumes, will add much to the effectiveness of the scenes. These tableaux have been designed and arranged by Mrs. Oscar Carter, whose well-known taste, skill and ability in such matters ensure their success in every particular.

Close of the Week of Prayer.

The week of prayer closed last night with the meeting in the Second Presbyterian Church where a large congregation was present. The services were on the same interesting lines as those which had been held in other churches during the week. They were conducted by Revs. Messrs. J. A. Jeffers and J. H. S. Ewell. "All men redeemed and restored" was the subject considered. The week of prayer affords an opportunity for union meetings, and the interchange of thought is one of the pleasant and edifying features.

The Market.

There was another light supply of country produce in market this morning, as is generally the case during the first few weeks after the holiday season. Prices were virtually unchanged from those which have recently prevailed. The hucksters and butchers had average displays on their benches. The offerings of fish were slim, but ample for the demand. There are but few varieties coming in at present. Some trout, lake fish salted shad and other specimens compose the offerings.

Killed by a Train.

The north bound passenger train on the Bluemont division of the Southern Railway struck and killed a colored man at Barcroft, about four miles west of this city early last night. The man was apparently crouching upon his hands and knees when the engine struck him. The unfortunate man is supposed to have been an itinerant barber, as razors, brush and cup were found on his person. He could not, however, be identified.

Deserted Schooner.

Three sailors belonging to the schooner W. P. Hood, loaded with railroad ties for Boston, deserted this morning as the schooner was about to leave the shipyard. One of the men was captured and turned over to the police. He gave as his reasen for deserting that there was a member of the crew who was objectionable to him. The other two men, it is believed, will soon be captured and returned to the schooner.

Runaway.

A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Harry Head, grocer, became frightened this morning near King and Washington streets and dashed up King street. When the animal reached Columbus street it ran on the pavement on the northeast corner, carrying away the mail box and causing a stampede of pedestrians. The horse was stopped at that point before any further damage was caused.

New Insurance Company.

Vogelgesang, a former resident of Alexandria. The deceased for many years conducted the baking business in this city, at one time on Wolfe street, between Fairfax and Lee, on north Royal street, and during late years on Cameron street, opposite the market. He had been a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge for a long time. His remains will be brought to this city and buried with Masonic honors tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Vogelgesang was 74 years old.

Reported Assault.

It was reported today that a fireman on the Southern Railway had been found near the tracks north of this city at an early hour this morning badly cut and battered. Some said the man had been struck by a train and others that he had been assaulted and cut. Police officers hastened to the reported scene, but could find no traces of the man nor could they ascertain the source of the report which continued to gain circulation. The railroad officials place no credence in the report.

Branch Bank.

The Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Culpeper has liquidated and will be converted into a branch of the Virginia Safe Deposit & Trust Corporation, of Alexandria. Mr. C J. Rixey, the president, in explanation of the matter says: "My reasons for taking this course are the reduction of expenses in concluding the business and to give to Culpeper the facilities of an institution of larger capital than it has been her fortune to have there before."

River Notes.

The tug boat William H Yerkes, jr., which has been hauled out on the railway for the past week to have her hull covered with heavy galvanized iron as a protection against ice, will be launched within the next day or two, and will at once go into commission, under the command of Capt. "My mother has been a sufferer for many years from Rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. Successful Season Sale.

The unusually large Christmas business has left us with many broken lots of merchandise, and as it is nearing time for our semi-annual inventory we desire to close out these odd lots and at the same time reduce our stock as much as possible so as to lighten the labor of stock-taking.

To do this we are offering for ten days commencing January 15th some of the greatest bargains that has ever gone over our counters.

These are not damaged or out of season goods, but real reductions, goods that we are sacrificing solely to reduce stock.

Triplets Twice in Two Years

For the second time within two years Mrs. W. W. Wilson, of Chicago, until recently a resident of Austin, has given birth to triplets. Mrs. Dr. Lona Marster, 5502 Washington boulevard, Mrs. Wilson's mother, has received a telegram from Los Angeles to the effect that two boys and a girl had been born to her daughter, and that all were doing well. The father packed his suit case and left for the California city.

Five years ago twins were born to Mrs. Wilson, after the parents had been married for sixteen years. Three and a half years afterward came the advent of the first set of triplets, who were christened on the twentieth anniversary of the wedding of the parents. The three babies however, lived only six months, dying within a few days of each other. The twins are alive and healthy.

Martyr to His Beliefs.

It is believed that Dr. Selwyn A. Russell, who died Thursday, in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was a martyr to his beliefs through trying to obtain practical knowledge by testing one of his theories on himself. He starved himself to death on a theory. He held that nine-tenths of the people, poor as well as rich, eat too much, and was given to prescribe a meager diet for his patients. One of his children Sunday asked Dr. G. C. Bayley, superintendent of Vassar Hospital, to see him. Dr. Tuthill made an examination, but could find no symptoms of organic disease. They learned that Dr. Russell had taken no nourishment for a week. The organs were not in a condition to assimilate food.

Young Corbett Defeated.

Herrera, the Mexican, defeated Young Corbett on the fifth round of the twenty-round go at Los Angeles, Cal., last night. Up to the middle of the fifth round Corbett seemed to have all the best of the argument, forcing the Mexican to the ropes with body blows in the fourth round and again at the beginning of the fifth.

In the middle of the last round the Mexican sent Corbett reeling with a hard right to the jaw. He knocked him down twice in succession after this, and the last time Corbett fell heavily and was carried out of the ring.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one for four weeks when I was was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure, stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Poterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is a liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray relieves at once and cure is certain. All druggists, 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

A Liquid Cold Cure.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in Croup, Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, etc. Children love it. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Soothing and Comforting.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. This Salve draws out the inflammation, reduces swelling and acts as a rubefacient, thus circulating the blood through the diseased parts, permitting or aiding Nature to permanently remove the trouble entirely. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

WORKS WONDERS EVERY TIME

How Gowan's Pneumonia Cure Cures Colds, Sore Throat, Croup, Pneumonia—All of them Ills that Come from Colds—And the Reasons Why

When you have a cough or a pain in the chest, your cold is settling there—and this is very dangerous. Most of the deaths in winter begin just this way.

Wherever your cold is centered, there you must apply the remedy. Either on your chest or throat. Now when you take an internal remedy it has to pass through the stomach. Often it wrecks your digestion and never gets to your lungs at all.

Gowan's Pneumonia Cure is external. It penetrates—goes right in to the seat of the trouble, and soothes at once the irritated lungs or throat. It casts out the germs of cold, consumption, pneumonia—all evil germs. That is, it makes the lungs strong to cast these germs out.

READ THESE TWO LETTERS

"I can't spare no pains to call the attention of my friends to this valuable medicine.
"Mrs. J. E. GILL, Superintendent Male Orphan Asylum, Richmond, Va."

"I have used Gowan's Pneumonia Cure, and I think it is the best medicine in the world. I feel sure it saved my mother's life last fall.
"P. O. LEAK, with Luipfert-Scales Co., Winston-Salem, N. C."

Gowan's is powerful, but also harmless. It is an absolute safeguard against croup. Every mother should keep a bottle in the house. Cure your cold, cough, chest pains—to-day. Immediate relief—sure cure in Gowan's. Large bottle, $1.00; croup size, 25 cents. Sent by mail, if desired.
